October News

Learning Activities

Letters C,D,E, F
Number 2 and 3
The older classes will be working on name writing. If you help at home, start with a capital letter, followed by lower case letters. We'll also work on sorting and sequencing. Sometimes a paper will come home with only one side finished. You are welcome to complete it with your child at home. Younger classes will work on listening to stories, balancing on one foot, and holding a pencil with the correct grip.

Fall Family Night

On Tuesday, October 17, the whole family is invited to come to see the preschool anytime from 6:00-8:00 PM. Your preschooler can show you around. There will be snacks and projects. We hope to see you there!

FIELD TRIP:

We will have our first field trip to Lake Katherine on Wednesday, October 4th. Please arrive at 9:20am. We will be starting promptly at 9:30am. Please wear your yellow school tshirt. All students are welcome to attend even if its not their regular school day. Please wear tennis shoes or boots as we will be outside (please no crocs/flip flops).

Halloween Celebration

Tuesday, October 31, the children may wear Halloween costumes to preschool. Please avoid scary characters. Please label all masks, wands, etc.

with your child's name. Children from all classes and parents are welcome to come to the church fellowship hall at 11:35AM for a costume parade and parents may pass out treats to the children. We have 20 students enrolled. If you can't make it, no problem.

FIRE DEPARTMENT:

We will have the Palos Heights fire department at our school on Tuesday, October 10th to talk about Fire safety. This is a time to find our our firemen are not scary with all their gear on and we get to see the fire truck.

Reminder:

There is NO School on Monday, October 9th for Columbus Day.

We will not be having individual school photos taken this year.
